One of the lost arts to the democrats How to secure barmony.

There must be something in Blaine's magnetism. All his enemies are fighting against it.

"The best judge of an American citizen is the American people." That is the reason Blaine was nominated.

Blaine's letter of acceptance will be the best republican platform ever written. It will be the product of scholarship, gemius, and statesmanship.

The president doesn't monkey with the Mormon question. He dared to reappoint Murray governor of Utah against the protestation of the Mormon leaders.

General Sheridan will let the United States army slide for a few days, and will superintend the races at the Washington Park, Chicago, which will continue for Judge Polana, of Vermont, will decline a renomination for congress. He says he has enough of public life. When a man actually refuses to sit in congress, there is you hope for the country.

The latest story out on General Logan is that he owns 80.000 acres of land, and of course couldn't get it honestly. This shows how hard it is to sorape together democratic campaign mud. The general owns about 23 acres of lund.

General Thomas S. Allen, who has been the editor of the Oshkosh Northwestern for a number of years, has sold his interest in the paper to his 'partuer-John Hicks. Mr. Charles W. Lawson, who has been city editor of the paper for some time, will become editor.

The Reverend Talmage doesn't want to be a "Me-toe" in politics. He wants to bolt, but as Mr. Beecher bolted first, the lunging orator of the Tabernacle says he won't play second fiddle to the Plymouth pastor. There is a way out of this dilemma for Mr. Talmage-ho can strad-

There is a growing opposition to Cleveland, because he is ignorant and inexpe rienced. There is a growing opposition to all the other democratic caudidates. president to appoint Judge Dyer, of the eastern district court of this state, to the position of circuit judge in place of Judge Diammond who will resign the position. Judge Dyer has made an ex. ed public career, he has ever been free cellent United States district judge, and his promotion would be a fitting recognition of his worth and services. The wazette understands that the opinion prevails in Washington that Postmaster General Gresham will be appointed.

The president of the Janesville board of education has made an important discovery. He says that reading novels "makes a wreck of the nervous system!" What a pity that Dickens, Thackaray, Cooper, Hawthorne, Eliot, Sands, Howells, and scores of other novelists of ripe scholarship and commanding genuius, didn't get on to this before they gave the world the product of their brain power! Medical science has been butfled for many years to find out why there

SITUATION REVIEWED.

What Has Been Done Toward Select ing the Democratic Nominee Nearly All the Important Conventions Held and Pointers Scarce-A Talk with a But-

CHICAGO, June 29.—The Herald sum-marizes the preliminary work for the na-tional Democratic convention as follows: In wo weeks the Democratic national convention will be in full blast, and yet at this time all is doubt as to the strength of proposed candidates. A month before the Republican convention the first choice of most of the deegates was known and published, and the lines were drawn much as they ap-peared during the last few days of the preliminary canvass and in the battle at conven-tion hall. The relative strength of Blaine, of Arthur, Edmands, and Logae was well known, at least approximately. Some good predictions were made, not only as to the resuit of the first ballot but as to the nomination itself, as The Herald readers will remember. But he would indeed be a rush prophet who attempted to forecast the number of voice that Cleveland or Bayard or McDonald will receive week after next.

Illinois is the last state of any importance to hold her state convention, and all the dele gates have now been selected, with the exoption of about half a hundred.

Maine declared herself for Cloveland by Many declared bersel for cloveland by complimentary resolution, but did not instruct her delegates to vote for him. New Hampshire's votes are uninstructed, but were reported all for Tilden. In Vermont Tilden's name was received with thunders of appliance, but the delegates are free to act as they see fit. Massachusetts declared for Ben Butler. Connecticut: cheered Tilden loudly, but gave no other sign of preference. The delegation is believed to be solid for Cleve-lund. Little Rhode Island's delegates are not instructed, but reported all for Clevelund. There are reports that a part of Massachu-setts is rendy to desert Butler. With Butler ut of the way New England's first choice sames to be Governor Cleveland. how see fit. Massachusetts declared for Ben eems to be Governor Cleveland.

New York's choice is much disputed. A minority of the party oppose Governor Cloveand and led by Tammany hall, are seeking to convince the rest of the country that he would be a weak candidate for New York. It is claimed by the opposition that a univer-ity of the New York delegates are against the governor, but this claim is stoutly denied. Penusylvania declared for ex-Speaker Randall, and will give him united and cordial

New Jersey adopted no resolutions indicating her choice. Cleveland, Payne, Randall and Bayard are supposed to have friends in the delegation. Delaware will present to the convention the name of her distinguished senator. Maryland adopted resolutions demonning the fraud by which Tilden was cheated out of the presidency, declaring it the duty of the party to continue agitating the great wrong until it shall be made right. The delegates are uninstructed, but favor Bayard or Cleveland.

Virginia made no expression of choice other than for Tilden. All the candidates have friends in the delegation, particularly Bayard, Cleveland, and McDonald. Morth Carolina is reported divided between Cleve-land and Bayard, as is South Carolina. Georgia is solid for Cleveland, excepting one vote for Bayard, though the dolegation is unin-tructed. Alabama made no expression what-ever as to choice, and the preferences of any of her delegates have not been reported in the press. Mississippi pessed a resolution de-claring "no men to be more worthy of the presidency and vice presidency than Tilden and Hendricks," but made no expression reand Hendricks," but made no expression re-garding other candidates. Louisiana declared for Tilden, notwithstanding his declination, deemed it the duty of the party to nominate him and trust to his love of country and devotion to Democracy to accept the burden. Texas instructed her delegates to vote for Tikken, and his letter reaching the convention during the session, it refused to reconsider the resolution of instructions, The most of the Arkanasa delegates are reported for Clinical and the party are reported for Clinical and the first trust of the party are reported for Clinical and the party are presented for Clinical and the party are presented and the party are party are party and the party are party are party and the party are party are party are party are party and the party are party deemed it the duty of the party to nominate The most of the Arkausas dele-gates are reported for Cleveland. Missouri gives no instructions, but twenty-nine of her delegates, according to all accounts, prefer Cloveland, the other three being for Bayard. There is a strong disposition among the Missouri delegates to give Tildon a complimentary vote. Tonnessee made no expres-sion regarding candidates, but the delegates are reported about evenly divided between McDonald and Cloveland. Kentucky declared for Carlisle, and will doubtless give him a complimentary vote. West Virginia is for Tillen first, and then for Randall, Payno or Claveland, Ohio is largely in control of the friends of Senator Payne and Governor Hoadly, probably 35 to 38 votes out of the 46 being in sympathy with that element. This majority it is believed, will be for Cleveland first, bu if Cleveland should fail, then for Payne. The minority may been Thurman from the first, or await an opportunity to bring him favorably to the notice of the convention at a eritical moment. The delegates are unin-structed, and not hampered by the unit rule. The convention declared itself in favor of Tilden's nomination. Indiana presents McDonald's name with unanimity and enthusiasm. Her loyal sup-port may have such effect as to materially dvance the ex-senator's chances before the convention meets.

The Michigan convention by resolution deployed Tilden's declination and then seriously considered a proposition to declare for Cleveland, but the motion was withdrawn. The delegates are uninstructed, but nearly all favor Cleveland.

Wisconsin is for Tilden first, of course, and for second choice was favorable to Flower up to the latter's failure at Saratoga. In case they do not vote for Flower it is not known what their next preference will be. The Minuesota convention was all for Tilden. Newspaper reports give Cleveland as the second choice of most of the delegates. The Iowa Democrats declared for Tilden without reservation. McDonald is their re-ported second choice. Nebraska declared for Tiblen by resolution. For second choice the delegates are divided between McDonald and Cleveland. Kansas declared for Tilden by resolution. Second choice unknown. Colorado adopted resolutions declaring its eagerness to support Tilden again, but its delegates are all outspoken for Cleveland The Nevada delegates are pledged to the old ticket. The California convention declared by resolution for Tilden at first and Thurman as second choice. Several of the delegates are pledged not to vote for Field.

Cleveland, Randall, Butler, Bayard and McDonald are the only candidates who have developed strength in the state conventions. Cleveland seems so far in the lead that his nomination would be assured but for the opwas so much nervous prostration in the world, and at this interior day, the president icot moral courage, a thorough train to the first to solve the mystery. This knocks to tatters, the saying of Solomon, that there is nothing new under the sun.

> Plympton on Ben Butler. CHICAGO, June 28.—The Times has the following:

The Hon. N. A. Plympton, of Boston ex-lieutenant governor of Massachusetts and the chief supporter of Governor Butler in that state, arrived at the Palmer house Friday this tible, and we Tomk that with Butler as the candidate we can do it. He can carry every state which any other Democrat can and several other candidates that can not."

"For instance?"
"Well, he can carry Massachusetts; no other Democrat can do that. New Hamp other Democrate can do that New Manni-shire. That state is surely Republican if any other Democrate runs. Michigan. That scate is strong for Butler, and Detroit is a great Butler city. Butler could carry Con-necticut more surely and by a larger majority, than any other Democratic candidate; so it would be in New York and New Larger. would be in New York and New Jersey. In New York there are 200,000 labor votes, of which 50,000 are naturally Ropublican. These would all voto for Butler to a man, while Cleveland would not get more than half of them, if that many, as many of the Democratic labor votes are naturally friendly to Blaine. So also, with the Irish votes: they like Blaine; but Butler could got them away from him. The same thing applies to New Jersey, where there is a large labor vote. Indiana Butler could carry: There is a large greenback vote there, and the Democrats could just as well have had it in 1850 orats could just as well have had it in 1800, and so elected Hanceck if some one like McDonald, who had a broader head that BEF English, had had control of things. Ho reactioned to allow Do La Mattyr to run for congress, insisting that a straight Democrat should run, and lost both the state and the most days to consciousnes.

presidency in consequence."
"You see," continued Mr. Plympton with charming candor, "we want to win this time and we think Butler can do it."

"But would the south vote for him?"
"Yes, I have every assurance to that offent.
You see the south is very hangry. It has been out in the cold for, lo, these twenty years, and it wants to get back into the fold.
Of course, to do this it must first win, and offer that it must have a weeklout when will after that it must have a president who will give it something. If a rock-rooted, mossback Democrat was chosen he could not give a southern man an office, but what a concerted howl would arise from every northern paper, and all of the old sectional autmosity would be revived. Butler, howover, fought their during the war with the greatest virulency, and in consequence be low could and would show the south favor which no other Democratic president would. Beside that, the southerners like a good fighter and Butler is all that." "What will the Independent Republican movement, which is fighting Blaine in Massachusetts, amount to?

"About 5,000 votes. The main trouble is that when we gain one of those votes we lose five others. Butler would not get these votes, but they would not go to Binine, so that the Democrats would gain more by it than if some man who suited them was nominated, because we would therefore keep the vote which that man would lose—votes which are oven now strongly disposed to go to Binine." "What are the chances of Butler's nomina-

"Much better than they were two weeks ago. When I left the east I supposed that Cleveland would be nominated on the first ballot. Since then his boom has been on the wane, and it looks now as if there would be t long contest in the convention. That would be Butler's chance. We are coming here as good Democrats, willing and auxious to vote and work for any man whom the convention may nominate, but we think we can present the most available candidate, and we will try to persuade the convention of that fact. If they can show us where any man is stronger than curs we will be the lirst to vote for him. We are not rooted to Butler, but we want to win, and think we can with him as the cendidate. On the first bal-lot Butler will have no strength outside of Massachusetts, but he has friends in every delegation, and will win in the event of a pro-longed contest,"

WASHINGTON CITY, June 28.—Representative Springer has been directed by the bouse committee on expenditures in the department committee on expenditures in the department of justice, to report to the house that serious charges have been made before the committee, reflecting upon the official character of the United States district judge for the district of West Virginia, and to ask that a special committee be appointed to investigate the matter.

Assistant Postmaster Removed. Boston, June 28.—There is considerable excitement here in political circles over the removal of Assistant Postmaster Charles Soule. It is said that the reason given to Soule for his removal was that a younger man was required, (Soule is a little over 60) one more conversant with the duties of the position, and who is not a relative of Postmaster Tobey. His successor is B. C. Camp, of Somerville, a man five years younger than Soule, and with no experience. Mr. Soule's management, it is believed, has been satisfactory to a majority of the patrons of the

The Congressional Summary.

Washington Cirry, June 28.—The senate passed a bill granting right of way through the Imlian territory to the Southern Kansas the Indian territory to the Southern Kansas road. A lift for the relief of William Me-Carrahan was reported adversely. Mitchell introduced a bill to incorporate the national emcampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Hawley called attention to a falls statement in a speech printed in The Record, that Gen. Logan owned 80,000 acres of land. The house of representatives, by a vote of 124 to 114, tabled the bill to forfels the "backbone" railroad land grant. The subject of printing undefivered speeches in the official report of proceedings led to some hot words and considerable merriment.

Betting Their False Teeth.
[San Francisco Daily Exchange.]
One of the delegates to the Democratic conventon at Stockton was Uncle Bob Foulks, who is a character known all over the mining listricts of this state and Nevada, Uncl. Bob is now past 80 years of age, but still apry and chipper, is a prominent citizen of Mono county and a shining light in the Demoeratic councils of that county.

Once upon a time, in the good old days whom a $20 piece didn't look as big as a short bit does now, Uncle Bob was engaged in his fuvorite postime of draw-poker. With a proexsional, single-handed. The sport was down tessional, single-handed. The sport was dawn to his last cent, sitting behind a good hand, and Uncle Bob had just raised birn. Futing his lingers to his mouth he took therefrom two false teeth on a gold plate. "See fiere, Uncle Bob," he sald, "there's more gold in this plate than enough to call your bet; I'll call you and raise you the rest of the value." "All right," said Uncle Bob, and reaching his hand into his mouth, he drow forth a full upper set, mounted in gold, and, throwing It into the pot, said: "Sonny, I'll raise you the balance of this piece." The sport passed out.

Valentine, of Nebrasks, Desires the House Record Corrected.

and Precipitates a Political Debate-How Cox, of New York, Played a Joke on the Represoutatives.

Washington City, June 28 .- After the ransaction of some not very important gen-ral business the house found itself without a quorum, and after several fruitless attempts to go on with business, Valentine, of Netraska, rose to a question of privilege, and hruska, rose to a question of privilege, and said there appeared in the record what purported to have been a speech delivered on the floor of the house by Mr. Adoo, of New Jersey, in which the gentleman devoted himself to the land-owners or "land grabhers," and quoted an article from The New York Star of January last which stated that Seuator John A. Logan owned $0,000 acros of land, He had soon Senator Logan, who said he did not own an acro of land except the house teach where he acro of land except the homestead where he was born, and the statement, so far as it re-lated to him; was absolutely false.

Several members on the Democratic side nsisted that no question of privilege had seed stated. Valenthic claimed that McAdoo had not spoken of the mutter before the nouse, but had gone out of his way to attack one of the bravest and most gallant soldiors of the country.

Follett, of Chicago, read from The Record of the 24th: "Mr. McAdoo addressed the couse. His remarks will appear hereafter." [Applause on Democratic side.]

Cannon said that was the point. The Record should show that the remarks were not made on the floor, and allowed to go uncontradicted. He then offered a resolution that the record of June 25 he amended so as to show that the speech of Mr. McAdoo was not delivered but registed in the Record of June 27. livered, but printed in The Record of June 27.

Cannon said the question was whether there should be a record of the proceedings of the body or whether The Rocord should be a receptable for the malice of men who have not the opportunity or the courage to avow it on the floor. The speech in question mislead the country by purporting to have been actually delivered. The question of the decency of the records of the house was a matter in which all were interested.

McAdos said if there was to be a comparison of the personal bonor and integrity of himsoif and the gentleman from Illinois, he was willing to leave it to the country. When the bill was up he had offered what he considered an important amendment which he desired to discuss, but was prevented by the rules He therefore asked leave to print which was iven. With that he wrote and sent to the reporters the speech in question. He would retract not one word. He had incorporated in his speech and extract from a reputable pull newspaper, and had not commented on it. It was published last January, and had been republished, and from that day to this there had never been a contradiction of it from the appersensitive senator or any of his friends supersensitive senutor or any of his friends. As to the intimation that he had acted with discourtesy and a want of courage, the blackest enemy he had in his district would not say he was lacking in courage. The turniult raised was not because The Record had been violated, but because the name of John A. Logan was mentioned. If the gentleman got his tand honestly he had nothing to say against his character in acquiring ". What he had to say was against the principle which bermitted any one to acquire so many acres. permitted any man to acquire so many acres. He was informed that the gentleman himself did not deliver his turiff speech in the house. Cannon said no tariff speech of his had ap-peared in The Record. McAdoo read from The Record of April 23 that "Mr. Cannon addressed the committee. His remarks will appear hereafter." "Now," said he, "did the gentleman deliver his turiff speech in the McAdoo-Thou the gentlemen is afraid to answer. I might have imitated the example of others, I might have got up on the floor and said to the deluded soldiers of the country. "What do you think of a great senator who poses as a statesman, and who under the cover of his brother-in-law went to New Moxico and tried to preempt hundreds of thousands of acres of land, and was only stopped by the surveyor gen-eral; of the man who tried to rob his own kith and kin of their lands by despoiling the Zuni Indians." [Loud applause.] He would leave the subject with the house, scenting behind no newspapers. He chanked his friend [Cox] for saying that if he had been in error, he would correct it. He would not knowingly do injustice to the lowest or the highest in the land. Let the gentleman donl with a denial bimself, and the record would stand [Applause.] Hopkins, of Pennsylvania, thought the Republicans should remove the beam from their own eyes. He offered an amendment proposing to amend the resolution so as to show that the speech of Cutchcon, of Michigan, June 24, was not delivered in the house. He said that while the bill to prohibit the importation of contract tabor was under consideration, Cutchean printed as having been made in the house, a speech in which he not only assailed the Democratic party, but made an unjust and unfair attack mon the centleman who introduced the bill Henley, of California offered as an amendment to the resolution that the amendment to the resolution that the official reporters be directed to furnish for publication in The Record the remarks made by Cutcheon, of Michigau, reflecting upon Gen. U. S. Grant, and suppressed from The Record. [Voefferous applause by the Democrats.] Henley said as this was an era of armendments and corrections, he desired this correction rade. The Record had been marred by the withholding of a scurrillous and vindictive attack upon Gen. Grant in the Fitz John Porter case which had for some unknown—and until this time, unexplained reason been withhold. He offered this in the reason been withheld. He offered this in the interest of the correspondents in the reporters' gallery, who sat there and heard this assault on Gen. Grant which they flashed eff over the wires. When The Record appeared next morning, it turned out that they had fied-or morning, it turned out that they had fied—or somebody else had.

Cox, of New York, who had meanwhile collected several speeches, Biaine's book, and other material for a sharp speech, offered a further amendment that so much of The Record of June 7, as contained the speech of Brower, of New Jersey, he stricken out. Members gathered around Cox, as usual when he makes a speech on a subject like this.

Cox arose and said: "Mr. Speaker, Mr. Speaker: The hour of 5 o'cleck having arrived, the house, in accordance with a pre-vious order, stands in recess until 8 o'clock. Roars of laughter, in which Cox heartily joined. The debate thus stopped will probably come up again, as the resolutions stand among the privileged questions.

Gossip in New York About the Recont Case Challenge.

Great Besire to See the Two Wonders Blessure Speed-Daily Racing 23 Record-The Base Ball Scores-Ttems.

NEW York, June 28,—The challenge of Mr. J. I. Case, backed up by a forfeit of $5,000, has created a great deal of talk in sporting and driving circles. A reporter called on Mr. Busbey, in whose hands. Mr. Case placed his money, and asked him with regard to the published statement of Mr. Vanderbilk. Mr. Busbey said: "Judging by the record, Mr. Vanderbilk has the fastest animal, but it must be remembered that Jay-Eye-Sea as a 5-year-old equaled the 6-year-old record of Mand S. equaled the 6-year-old record of Mand S.— 2:10%. He is now as a 6-year-old but a half second behind the 7-year-old record of the mare, 2:10%—and, as he has shown privately this summer a mile in 2:12, it is reasonable to suppose that he will probably take in 2:10 or better. At any rate Mr. Cost, her confidence better. At any rate, Mr. Case has confidence enough in this capacity to offer to back him for $10,000 as side against any trotter in the world, either in exhibition beats or a race. He has proved the carriestness of his intentions by placing $5,000 in my hands as a forfeit. Mr. Vanderbilt says in the published interview that everyone knows that he has invariably refused to allow Maud S. to be trotted in a race or match. I can not believe that he is race or mater. I can not believe that he as correctly reported. In 1330 Mand S., then the property of Mr. Vanderbilt, but managed by Capt. George N. Stone, trotted in races for money at Cincinnati, Chicago, Cleveland and Buffalo, and Aug. 12, the same year, she trotted exhibition heats against St. Julien at Rochester. Each made a record of 2:11% and the money the roots and the flow! the money, the pools, and the floral motto, 'The best mile ever made,' was divided. At Chicago she trotted for a purse against Trinket, then 5 years old, and for mi inside Trinket, then 5 years old, and for an inside stake of $2,000. Previous to this race there was much newspaper discussion about match making, and Capt. Stone telegraphed to San-Francisco to Mr. F. A. Finagon, who then owned Santa Claus, that he would match Maud S. against his horse for $10,000 a side, and would allow $1,000 for expenses. The proposition was declined. I only montion these things to show you that Maud S. has challenged and been challenged. At Chicago, Sept. IS, 1889, she trotted for a purse, and made her 6-year-old record of 2:1034. In 1881 she trotted exhibition heats for money at Columbus, Detroit, Pittsburg. Chicago. at Columbus, Detroit, Pittsburg, Ghicago Philadelphia, Buffalo, and Rochester. At the latter place. Aug. 11, she made her present record of 2:10½."

Mr. Busbey was asked his opinion of the relative morits of the two great trotters, and he roplied: "Maud S. is older, has had more track experience than Jay-Bye-See, and she ought to be able to beat the gelding in a race. How mile at the New York driving chut in 2:12½, the first half, in 1:44, and 1:44. race. Her mile at the New York driving club in 2:13%, the first half in 1:04%—a 2:05% gait—shows that she is in fine form and has a great turn of speed. She ought to start a favorite in a match against Jay-Eye-See. But Mr. Caso's horse must be in great form, for otherwise that gentleman would not be so bold with his money. The fairness of his proposition can not be questioned. Mr. Vanderbilt has a right to do as he pleases with Maud S., but he would gratify thousands of dumirers of the queen if he would reconsider. almirers of the queen if he would reconside his decision and return the mare to Capt. Stone for a race with Jay-Eye-See."

FOURTH OF JULY.

The Arrangements Progressing Sat infactorily.

The committees having in charge the arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration held a meeting in the council chamber last evening, and was well at tended.

Dr. Henry Palmer presided.

Reports were made that the military companies, the fire department, the Grand Army veterans, the trades, and calathumpians would be represented in good force on that day.

The arrangements were all reported as being under way, and that everything tended to show that the celebration would be a grand success. After indulging in a general discussion over the details of the celebration the committee adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clook. Prevent sickness by taking occasions

The National Republican Committee Organized for Work.

An Irish Newspaper Dofines Its Posttion-Butler Meeting in Boston-Democratic Conference-General Campaign Notes.

New York, June 27,-The national Republican committee inct at the Fifth Avenue hotel Thursday at noon. There was a large attendance of politicians from all parts of the country. The prospects of the presidentia campaign were engerly discussed and talked over. Men from distant points of the Union were engerly sought after by the home guard and asked as to the probabilities of their re spective states being carried for the Repub-lican nominees. Maj. Cole, of Florida, said that fair play as to the counting of the votes of his state would give a Republican major ity of about 2,000.

Mr. N. W. Cuney, of Texas, said that that state would send Republican members to con gress, but that was the best they could do All the western representatives spoke with the greatest confidence of carrying their states for Blaine and Logan, and it was evi dent that there would have been less reserve tion as to prophesy what the result would b in November if it were known who the numinoes of the approaching Democratic convention will be. Many of the member stated that the name of Governor Cleveland ills by the use of it, would rise up and did not cause them much apprehension, but testify of its merits if they could be that Benjamin F. Butler did, and several members of the national committee said that if the Democrats bad the courage to make the nomination the Republicans would have a very hard fight, and the campaign would

his land south of the blied institute The Irish World Delines Its Position. which have been sold by C. E. Bowles to says, under the head "Butler or Blainer" "As the time for holding the Democratic national convention comes on, the popular feeling in favor of Gen. Butler's nomination grows stronger. Is would be a grave mistake on the part of the Democratic munigers to sup-pose that in the event of Gen. Butler's failure to get the nomination they could keep voters loyal to the Democratic party. If ignoring the wishes of the rank and file of the Democracy, the political wire-pullers should nomi-nate such candidates as Cleveland or Bayard there will be such a stampede from the Democratic ranks as will astonish those wire-pullers. We warn them in time that there is a spirit abroad that cannot be safely trifled with. The popular feeling toward Gen. Butler is one that is rooted in the belief that he, more than any other public nan, is a champion of a policy that is truly American. Next to him in the advocacy of such, policy comes Mr. Blaine, who, in case Gen. Butler does not get the nomination, will undoubtodly receive the great bulk of the votes that will go to the Democratic party if it places Gen. Butler's name at the head of its ticket.

Butter does not receive the nomination, The Irish World will advocate the election of Mr. Blaine, and will use whatever influence it may possess to place him in the White House. We believe the time has come when a more vigorous American policy ought to be substituted for the sycophantic spirit toward. England that has so long ruled the councils of the nation. For this reason we shall work for the election of Mr. Blaine if the Democracy refuses to select as its standard bearer Gen. Butler, th only man who can save it from defeat.

"It is for the Democratic national conven tion to decide whether Gen. Butler or Mr. Blaine shall succeed President Arthur. Let it present some other candidate than Gen. Butler to the voters, but if it does we tell the Democratic convention that its nomination will be a signal for a bolt that will shatter the Democratic party to pieces."
